

Farm Financial and Production Management Course

Course Outline:

Business Planning:

- Personal and family goal setting
- Business goals
- Risk management

Financial Management:

- Record-keeping
- Financial Document development and analysis:
 - Income statement
 - Balance sheet
 - Cash-flow - actual and projections

Production Management:

- Preparation and tracking of production records
- Utilization of production records to aid in decision-making
- Utilizing production records in the analysis of income statements, balance sheets, cash flow statements
- Utilization of production records to identify problems, evaluate alternatives, and make necessary adjustments in the operation.